Competitive Examination in March and April 1934 for admission to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun and the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell.

The following Notice, dated the 30th October 1933, received from the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Delhi, calling for applications for the above examination is published for general information;—

Each candidate for the examination for admission to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, who may be eligible for consideration for the award of a King Emperor Cadetship at the Indian Military Academy, i.e., whose fathers are holding or have held King's Commissioned Rank or Viceroy's Commissioned Rank; or are or have been Gazetted Civil Officials—should fill in and submit a copy of the questionnaire relating thereto with the application.

Candidates of the Mysore State who desire to appear at the above examination are required to submit one copy of the application in the prescribed form, with the necessary documents, to the Chief Secretary to Government so as to reach him on or before the 20th December 1933, and the other copy to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, Delhi, from whom copies of the application form, rules, syllabus, etc., may be obtained.

NOTICE.

A competitive examination will be held in Delhi on the 26th March 1934, and subsequent days, for entry to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, and Royal Air Force College, Cranwell, in the terms beginning on the 24th August and in September 1934 respectively.

2. The examination will be a combined examination for the purpose of filling vacancies in the two Institutions mentioned above. A candidate may apply to be admitted as a candidate for both or either of the Institutions. If he wishes to be admitted as a candidate for both, he should state this on his Application Form. Separate applications are not required. He will be required to pay the application and examination fees once only. If he proves successful as a candidate for both the Institutions, he will ordinarily be assigned to that Institution for which he expressed a preference in his application, provided that the vacancies have not already been filled; but the Government of India reserve power to assign him to either Institution for which he is a candidate.

3. At this examination 15 vacancies will be offered for entry to the Indian Military Academy. The Governor-General in Council, however, reserves to himself the right to fill the last three vacancies by nomination from among those who have qualified but failed to obtain sufficient marks to secure one of the first twelve vacancies. Two vacancies will be filled by competition for entry to the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell.

4. The examination will be the same for all arms of the Indian Army, i.e., Cavalry, Artillery, Signals, Engineers and Infantry. Those cadets who wish to elect for the Artillery, Engineers and Signals, will be permitted to do so during their course at the Academy.

5. Candidates must be over 18 and under 20 years of age, on the 1st May 1934, unmarried and domiciled in India. A candidate who desires to appear at the examination is required to submit his application in the prescribed form with the necessary documents on or before the 20th December 1933, in accordance with the instructions given on that form. Copies of the Applications Form, together with the rules relating to the examination, may be obtained from the Secretary to the Public Service Commission, Metcalfe House, Delhi.

The fact that an application form has been supplied, on whatever date, will not be accepted as an excuse for the late submission of an application. Candicates who delay their requests for forms until a late date will do so at their own risk.

6. Applications should be sent by registered post. If a candidate fails to register his application, he does so at his own risk. If a candidate desires an acknowledgment he should also send his application "acknowledgment due."

By Order,
R. RANGA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.
